C. & O. WINS VICTORY IN BIG DAMAGE CASE

By Associated Press.
Cincinnati, Ohio, December 2.—The C. & O. R. R. won a victory in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here today when it ordered back to the District Court for re-trial the McKell case.

The case was appealed from the decision of the District court, in which the heirs of Thomas McKell of Chillicothe, Ohio, were given judgment for $300,000 against the railroad for alleged breach of contract.

The contention was made that the railroad after entering into a contract to haul McKell's coal from the mines in West Virginia, entered into a coal mine business itself and used all its local facilities hauling its own coal, leaving McKell no way of getting his coal to market.

The case was sent back because the court believed the amount of damages awarded was speculative, as the evidence showed no definite way it arrived at a valuation of $300,000.

He has just announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for congressman from the Seventeenth Ohio district.

Senator Green Surprised.
Coshooton, O., Dec. 2.—State Senator William Green said he was very much surprised to learn of the indictments when told that they were brought under the Sherman anti-trust law. "This same procedure was taken against the national mining officials in West Virginia, and these latter cases have never been pushed, and I believe that they will be continued indefinitely or dropped altogether. I have had nothing to do with organizing the Colorado miners."

SHATTERS WOODEN LEG;
CRAWLS MILE FOR AID.

Parsippany, N. J., Dec. 2.—Edward Campbell was crawling under a fence while rabbit hunting and both barrels of his gun accidentally exploded, shattering his wooden leg. ## WALL OF WATER DROWNS TEN

By Associated Press.
Belton, Texas, Dec. 2.—Ten persons were reported to have perished in a thirty foot wave which came without warning down Nolan Creek before daybreak. The creek runs through the center of this city.

50 houses along the creek's banks in Belton were swept away. In the heart of the town, Mrs. W. C. Polk and her four children were caught asleep and their home together with the occupants carried down-stream. Polk carrying the fifth child, an infant, escaped. Five fatalities, a man, his wife and three children were reported in another family. When the Main street bridge in Temple, Texas, was torn out by the torrent, an unidentified man was on the structure. It is believed he perished. The creek's rise was the result of a downpour of four hours' duration.

CHEERS GREET PRES. WILSON

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., December 2.—For the third time, President Wilson who established the precedent of reading his message to Congress, appeared before that body this afternoon and gave his own ideas from his own lips.

The galleries were packed with a brilliant company of officials and their families and the arrival of the President was the signal for them to arise and give a deafening roar of approval.

It was 1:08 p. m. when the President took his place behind the desk and began to read. His usual pleasing tone carried his words to the doors of the chamber. The declaration of President Wilson that "There can be no certain prospect of peace in America until Gen. Huerta has surrendered his usurped authority in Mexico," was greeted with prolonged applause. Applause was still louder when he said the United States would continue its "waiting policy" with reference to Mexico.

FEDERALS SCATTER BEFORE THE REBELS

By Associated Press.
Juarez, Mexico, Dec. 2.—Hasty preparations were under way today in the Rebel ranks for the occupation of Chihuahua, the capital of Chihuahua State, which is reported to have been evacuated by the Federals because of threatened starvation of its 35,000 population.

Pointing out that of the important Federal strongholds in the north only Monterey and Guaymas remained, General Francisco Villa, the Rebel leader said that Chihuahua would be made the base of aggressive activities southward. Just when forces will be sent to pursue Gen. Mercado, Huerta Military Governor, who was reported to be fleeing to the United States border and General Ojinaga, with 200 famished soldiers and Salazar, said to have taken to the mountains, Villa declined to say definitely, but said the Rebel advance toward Mexico City would continue briskly.

General Mercado is said to have decided on flight to the American border so that he would communicate with Provisional President Huerta. Communication between Chihuahua and Mexico City has been impossible for weeks.

By Associated Press.
Homesillo, Mexico, December 2.—Officials here received information today from Federal deserters that the garrison at Guaymas and Mazatlan had been preparing to evacuate. It was believed that this gave rise to the reports from Juarez last night that the two west coast ports had fallen into the hands of the Insurgents. There has been no disposition by Constitutionalists to attack either town. It has been assumed that sooner or later the Federals would evacuate voluntarily.

Striking Picture of Rescue At Sea From Burning Balmes

AGAIN wireless triumphs as the greatest life saver of the age. The case of the burning Spanish liner Balmes shows, as did the tragedies of the Volturno and the Titanic, what a marvelous thing for humanity wireless at sea is at the present day. The Balmes caught fire about 500 miles from Bermuda, and her wireless calls for help brought the Cunard liner Pannonia. All the passengers, 103, were taken off in lifeboats and placed aboard the Pannonia safely, though the sea was high and the wind strong. The crew of the Balmes stuck to their ship, and the vessel was able to reach Bermuda under its own steam, being conveyed by the Pannonia in case it was necessary to take off the crew. The Pannonia then proceeded to her destination, New York, with the rescued passengers. This picture was taken from the Pannonia while the passengers were being taken from the burning ship.

PROMISES MANY RADICAL REFORMS

Mrs. Ella Stewart of Chicago, Stirs Suffrage Convention by Eloquent Recital of What Will be Result When Women Have Full Suffrage —Thinks Women Will Soon Play Most Important Part in Bringing About Needed Reforms.

By Associated Press.

Washington, December 1.—Glorification of municipal life, reform of the schools, jails, poor-houses and saloons and a feminine influence in settling national and international problems—all this was prophesied for Illinois women will illumine at the annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association tonight by Mrs. Ella S. Stewart of Chicago. Mrs. Stewart formerly was president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association and secretary of the National Association. She described the power which the women of her state would receive from the new Illinois law.

"Without prophesying too much," she said, "we have faith to believe that the torch which has been lighted for Illinois women will illuminate some of the dark places of government. It will cleanse and glorify municipal life and guide Illinois children into safer paths."

"Our new law establishes a bond between Illinois womanhood and the White House. By their vote for presidential electors they may influence National problems and international policies."

"This section of our law will save us from the myopia which we might acquire from always bending with microscope over municipal needs."

"From distant periphery we will occasionally turn our telescope to the nation's center and take a look at our share of its vast issues—war or peace, the development of industry, commerce, agriculture, and the arts of civilization. But for the present we will be fairly busy with the microscope. The township, city and village will furnish us our field."

"The township suffrage is to open up a new era for the Illinois women of the farm. They may vote for assessor and they are not likely to scorn that vote, as they have long been in accord with Samuel Adams and James Otis."

"They may vote for the supervisor and highway commissioner and township officers. Our supervisors are the county housekeepers. They have charge of jails, poor-houses and other county property; and administer the charity of the county. Our state is shamed by the many jails and poor-houses which fail to reflect modern ideas of sanitation and humanity. The women voters' broom will find its task."

"We hope that votes for women will immediately institute a day when school houses shall be as sanitary as hospitals, beautiful and well-equipped—no more thirty and forty dollar a month teachers—but such salaries as a grateful state should pay its most important servants."

"This section also gives women a vote on the licensing of saloons, and in every such election in Illinois so far there has been a demonstration of the antiseptics of the women's vote. They apparently have needed no coaching."

RAILROAD BILLS ARE PRESENTED

Washington, Dec. 2. — Three bills, proposing important changes in the laws under which the interstate commerce commission supervises the operation of railroads, were introduced in the house by Mr. Adamson of Georgia. As Mr. Adamson is chairman of the committee on interstate commerce, it is assumed the bills will be used as a basis for legislation to be passed this session enlarging the powers of the interstate commerce commission. The Adamson committee will shape in part the anti-trust program of the administration. It will handle all bills dealing with railroads, while the judiciary committee, of which Mr. Clayton of Alabama is chairman, will frame all measures relating to industrial corporations.

In a statement with his bills, Chairman Adamson declares he stands for the policy of government regulation instead of government ownership. He strongly intimates that unless the powers of the commission are broadened, the sentiment for government ownership will be accelerated.

The first bill in the Adamson series is aimed at the overcapitalization of railroads. The second bill provides that all corporations complying with the anti-trust laws shall so certify to the secretary of commerce, who thereupon shall place the names of the corporations on what is termed the "commercial directory." Corporations so registered will be immediately recognized as "good trusts," as distinguished from "bad trusts" which fail or refuse to register. The third bill requires railroads to publish their freight and passenger schedules in at least one newspaper publication in every county in which they operate.

Most people think it more foolish to give than to receive.

What Does It Mean?

There is much for the people to think about in the facts and figures given in the following news item published broadcast over the land.

The nation's jewelry bill for 1913 will approximate $57,000,000, according to statistics of jewelry importations just published by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. This is declared to be more than 30 per cent in excess of the highest record yet established. The former record was $44,250,000, in 1906. The bureau declares that the value of all the diamonds in this country has reached the enormous sum of nearly one billion dollars. To this must be added the importations of other precious stones, the value of which is not estimated in the statistics. Cut diamonds showed the greatest gains in recent years. For the first nine months of 1913 there were imported $23,500,000 in these gems as against $18,000,000 last year. The total of all precious stones for the same period was $43,333,333 as against $32,250,000 last year. These figures are declared by the bureau to warrant the belief that this year's importations will greatly exceed those of former years.

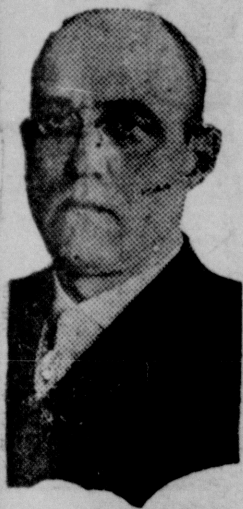

Many people, but not so many now as there would have been a few years ago, might jump to the conclusion that it meant prosperity.

Well, it does mean prosperity of a certain sort, but is it that wide spread prosperity of a nation in which all share in proportion to their ability, industry and thrift.

Does it indicate more of a hot house prosperity—a prosperity for the few at the expense of the many.

Think about these facts—they are worthy of thought—and determine if you can, the direction to which they point.

The Prizes of the Panama Canal Are Not Going to Us Unless We Strive For Them

By JOHN BARRETT, Director General of the Panama Canal.

American Union

THERE is a growing need that every manufacturing and productive city and section in the United States should be UP AND DOING AND GETTING READY FOR THE PANAMA CANAL. It is equally important that cities and states should realize the present and prospective value of pan-American commerce.

We have the enterprise, the men, the capital, the industries, the location and, I hope, the ambition which can ENABLE US TO PROFIT ENORMOUSLY from the opening of the canal and from the development of the exchange of trade with the twenty sister Latin-American republics.

We cannot, however, simply rest upon our present laurels and be satisfied.

We must REALIZE THE COMPETITION WHICH WE MUST MEET with the great manufacturing, exporting and importing centers of Europe and even Asia.

THE PRIZES OF THE PANAMA CANAL ARE NOT GOING TO US UNLESS THEY ARE FOUGHT FOR WITH UNREMITTING EFFORT.

IT WILL REQUIRE TIME FOR THE FULL GOOD OF THE CANAL TO BE REALIZED by any city or section of the United States. Business must adapt itself to the new conditions, and the accompanying INFLUENCES OF DEMAND AND SUPPLY MUST BE THOROUGHLY STUDIED AND MASTERED.

Poetry For Today

WOMAN.

When sentiment usurps her mind,
To reason deaf, to logic blind,
A mystery is womankind;
But in her darkness
She proves to you she has a mind
Of wondrous clearness.

She does her thinking with her heart
And swears it is the better part.
And when toward a goal you'd start
(She'd have you do it!)
She'll give your brain a flying start
and beat you to it!

Although you glimpse her hopes and fears,
A mystery she still appears,
Interpreting her smiles and tears
Is simply guessing,
And yet her presence through the years
Your life is blessing.

She is the fire beneath the pot
That keeps the world a-pipin' hot.
In Life's short story she's the plot
There's none above her!
And knowing that you know her not
You know you love her!
—Grif Alexander.

PROBING HIGH COST OF LIVING

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—State Auditor A. V. Donahey announced he would appoint special inspectors to investigate charges of high living by officers and employees of state institutions. He says:

"I have every reason to believe that officers and employees in our state institutions are at the present time indulging in extravagant living. Nothing short of a thorough investigation and the installation of a new system of institution accounting will show the extent of their extravagant living. I shall recommend and insist to the state board of administration that separate accounts be kept of the food consumed by officers, by employees and by inmates."

Donahey added that he would recommend that all officers and employees of state institutions, more than 3,000 in all, be required to pay their board at the institutions and that their salaries be raised to meet the proposed requirement.

MINE WORKERS ARE INDICTED

Pueblo, Colo., Dec. 2.—An attempt to secure a monopoly of labor is charged in 25 indictments returned by the federal grand jury here against national officers of the United Mine Workers of America. The men named are: John P. White of Indianapolis, president; Frank J. Hayes, vice president, and William Green of Coshoc-ton, secretary-treasurer.

Conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce in violation of the federal anti-trust law is charged in indictments against officials of the United Mine Workers of America as follows:

Frank J. Hayes, John R. Lawson, Adolph Germer, Robert Uhrich, A. B. McGary, James Morgan, Charles Batey and Edward Wallace, editor of a labor paper at Trinidad.

Some other indictments were returned against miners for alleged depredations against mine property.

The jury prepared a long report, in which mining conditions are reviewed. It ends with recommendations that the mining laws be more diligently enforced, that the governor should be empowered by the legislature to regulate or suspend the sale of ammunition and explosives during strike troubles; that in cases of disputes both parties should be required by law to operate the mines pending settlement. Financial interest of coal companies in saloons is denounced as reprehensible.

Methods of United Mine Workers are severely condemned, the report saying:

"The methods of the United Mine Workers of America in their endeavors to force recognition of their union by the coal mine operators in

Hair Doesn't Die-- It Has to Be Killed

Hair often continues to live and grow long after the death of the body. But it is often killed through neglect or misuse. Almost always the woman or man whose hair is falling out, or is stringy, lifeless and dull-looking, is entirely to blame because of not giving it the proper care. It is easy to take care of the hair—easy to make it more beautiful. Use Harmony Hair Beautifier, to make it glossy, soft and silky, and Harmony Shampoo to keep hair and scalp thoroughly clean.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, delightfully perfumed with true rose, is very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, giving an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair, and leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institution on application), writes regarding a patient:

"The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly Blackmer & Tanquary.

writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

MANY MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON

Regular Session of City Council Held Last Night, and More Discussion of Water Company Difficulty Takes Place When Communication From Myers Is Read—Other Affairs Receive Attention.

A long session was held by the City Council Monday night, and quite a number of matters were considered and action taken upon part of them.

The water works dispute again came up through a letter written by President Harvey Myers, and presented by Councilman Durant. The letter was a lengthy one and in addition to touching upon the subject of non-payment of water rentals which are being held up by the city until the Water Company fulfills its agreement, and asking for Council to take action indicating whether or not the Water Company could install meters instead of using the flat rate, and asking permission to use electric power instead of the present power. Pres. Myers stated that the double-suction asked by the city, and which the Water Company is alleged to have agreed more than a year ago, to construct, would cost some $1200 and no returns could be secured from it.

Council took up the matter, refused to pay the rentals, and passed a resolution to the effect that it was the belief of Council that meters could be installed if necessary under the present contract, but no formal action was taken on the question of consenting to electrical power.

A petition asking for the construction of a cinder walk on Draper street, to give the school children a path to prevent them from wading through mud and water, was presented, and after some discussion, the cinder walk was ordered constructed. Mayor Smith opposed granting the sidewalk.

The Service Director was authorized to construct a suitable approach to the engine house to be in readiness for the new motor fire truck. The matter of expending the $1000 left out of the $10,000 in bonds issued for fire equipment, for fire hose, was discussed, and the solicitor is to ascertain if any technicality opposes the action.

Improvement of the alley near the Dahl-Millikan plant was authorized, to be done under the direction of the Service Director.

Upon request of Will E. Dale an extension of the Paint street sewer was authorized, providing the money was obtainable.

City Solicitor Rankin presented the assessing ordinance covering the alley improvement between Main and Fayette from Court to East and this was passed.

The meeting was marked by lengthy discussions.

CORPORATION LINE TO BE EXTENDED

Jeffersonville citizens feel that their hustling town should increase the size of her girdle, and the County Commissioners will next Saturday take action upon an application to extend the corporation limits to include quite a little territory adjoining the town, and which promises to build up rapidly.

The increase of territory covered by the town will add quite a number of citizens to the present population of Jeffersonville.

Action on the proposed extension was to have been taken by the County Commissioners at their meeting Monday, but owing to the press of other matters, it was postponed until Saturday.

YOUNG MAN IS CRUSHED UNTIL BACK IS BROKEN

Roy Brown, Employed by Clarence Shepard, of the Waterloo Pike, Lays in Hospital at Point of Death With Little Hope of Recovery—Caught Between Wagon and Shed and Crushed.

With his back broken where he was caught and crushed while driving a load of corn into a shed, Roy Brown, aged 20, a farm hand, employed by Clarence Shepard, six miles east of this city on the Waterloo pike, is now confined to the Fayette hospital, and has been suffering the most excruciating pain. His recovery is very doubtful.

Monday the young man, whose home has been in this city, where he is well known, was assisting Mr. Shepard in cribbing corn, and had a large load on and was in the act of driving into a shed for the purpose of unloading the corn. As he neared the driveway, where the overhead beams were rather low, he attempted to jump from the wagon, but the horses made a sudden lunge and he was caught in a crouching position and crushed between the beam and the load of corn.

When Mr. Shepard reached him after his agonized cries had given warning of his injury, he found that the youth had been dragged the entire length of the wagon, and that he was seriously injured. He called assistance and removed him to the house. A physician was summoned from this city, and after an examination, called McCoy's ambulance and the young man was removed to the Fayette hospital. His back was broken between the fifth and sixth vertebra.

During the trip the injured man was in a delirious condition.

He is still in a serious condition, and cannot bear to be touched without suffering terrible agony. He is almost entirely helpless. Physicians believe he has a hard fight before him if he recovers.

DEATH MESSAGE RECEIVED THIS MORNING

Tuesday morning Washington relatives received the sad message of the death of Mrs. Jennie Bateman at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Horace Miller, in Middletown, her death taking place at six o'clock.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Bateman was seized with a serious and sudden attack of the heart, the trouble proving a fatal one.

Her sisters, Misses Lizzie and Anna Bell, and Mrs. John E. Green were called to Middletown and were with Mrs. Bateman's two children, Frank and Mrs. Ada Miller, during her last illness.

Mrs. Bateman's death came as a great shock and grief to her family, and also to a large circle of friends in this city, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family. Her entire life had been spent here until two years ago, when occurred the death of her husband, Ex-Mayor C. C. Bateman, and she went to Middletown to make her home with her daughter.

Mrs. Bateman was one of those unselfish, devoted women who make a beautiful home and whose loss is mostly keenly felt in the home circle.

The remains will be brought from Middletown to this city, arriving at 6:14, C. H. & D. Wednesday evening, and will be taken to the home of the Misses Bell, on North street.

Funeral services will be held at the Bell residence Thursday, at 1 p. m. Burial in the Washington cemetery.

CLAUDE HARE DIES IN CHICAGO

Mr. Glenn Rogers received word Tuesday morning of the death of Mr. Claude Hare, son of the late Dr. D. H. Hare, formerly of this city, at his home in Chicago on Monday, at 12 o'clock.

Miss Blanche Hare came down from Columbus Tuesday afternoon on the 3:33 B. & O. train to make arrangements for the interment in the Washington cemetery Wednesday. She returned to Columbus at 5:57, and will bring her mother down Wednesday.

The deceased has many friends in this city, where his younger days were spent, who will learn of his death with much regret.

PRESIDENT WILSON

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Chief Executive Discusses the Mexican Crisis, the Currency Bill, the Sherman Law, Nomination of President by Direct Vote at Primaries and Other Matters of Importance.

Washington, D. C.—In his message, delivered at a joint session of the houses of congress at the beginning of the second session of the Sixty-third congress, President Wilson urged immediate currency legislation, devoted considerable space to the needs of the farmers and referred to the Mexican crisis. The Sherman anti-trust law, he said, should be changed so that its exact meaning would be clearer. The president also urged the choice of presidential nominees by the direct

PRIMARY NOMINATIONS FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

I urge the prompt enactment of legislation which will provide for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of the several parties may choose their nominees for the presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions. I venture the suggestion that this legislation should provide for the retention of party conventions, but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platforms of the parties, and I suggest that these conventions should consist not of delegates chosen for this single purpose, but of the nominees for congress, the nominees for vacant seats in the senate of the United States, the senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees and the candidates for the presidency themselves, in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect.

vote of the people expressed at primaries. The message in full is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Congress—In pursuance of my constitutional duty to "give to the congress information of the state of the Union" I take the liberty of addressing you on several matters which ought, as it seems to me, particularly to engage the attention of your honorable body, as of all who study the welfare and progress of the nation.

I shall ask your indulgence if I venture to depart in some degree from the usual custom of setting before you in formal review the many matters which have engaged the attention and called for the action of the several departments of the government or which look to them for early treatment in the future, because the list is long, very long, and would suffer in the abbreviation to which I should have to subject it. I shall submit to you the reports of the heads of several departments in which these subjects are set forth in careful details and beg that they may receive the thoughtful attention of your committees and of all members of the congress who may have the leisure to study them. Their obvious importance, as constituting the very substance of the business of the government, makes comment and emphasis on my part unnecessary.

WANTS TREATIES RATIFIED.

Asserts That United States Leads in Peace Negotiations.

The country, I am thankful to say, is at peace with all the world, and many happy manifestations multiply about us of a growing cordiality and sense of community of interest among the nations, foreshadowing an age of settled peace and good will. More and more readily each decade do the nations manifest their willingness to bind themselves by solemn treaty to the processes of peace, the processes of frankness and fair concession. So far the United States has stood at the front of such negotiations. She will, I earnestly hope and confidently believe, give fresh proof of her sincere adherence to the cause of international friendship by ratifying the several treaties of arbitration awaiting renewal by the senate.

In addition to these it has been the privilege of the department of state to gain the assent, in principle, of no less than thirty-one nations, representing four-fifths of the population of the world, to the negotiation of treaties by which it shall be agreed that whenever differences of interest or of policy arise which cannot be resolved by the ordinary processes of diplomacy they shall be publicly analyzed, discussed and reported upon by a tribunal chosen by the parties before either nation determines its course of action.

There is only one possible standard by which to determine controversies between the United States and other nations, and that is compounded of these two elements—our own honor and our obligations to the peace of the world. A test so compounded ought easily to be made to govern both the nation in the production of its food. Our thoughts may ordinarily be concentrated upon the cities and the hives of industry, upon the cries of the crowded market place and the clangor of the factory, but it is from the quiet interspaces of the open valleys and the free hill-sides that we draw the sources of life and of prosperity, from the farm and the ranch, from the forest and the mine. Without these every street would be silent, every office deserted, every factory fallen into disrepair.

And yet the farmer does not stand upon the same footing with the forester and the miner in the market of credit. He is the servant of the seasons. Nature determines how long he must wait for his crops and will not be hurried in her processes. He may give his note, but the season of its maturity depends upon the season when his crop matures and lies at the gates of the market where his products are sold. And the security he gives is of a character not known in the broker's office or as familiarly as it might be on the counter of the banker.

The agricultural department of the government is seeking to assist as never before to make farming an efficient business, of wide co-operative effort, in quick touch with the markets for foodstuffs. The farmers and the government will henceforth work together as real partners in this field, where we now begin to see our way very clearly and where many intelligent plans are already being put into execution.

The treasury of the United States has by a timely and well considered distribution of its deposits facilitated the moving of the crops in the present season and prevented the scarcity of available funds too often experienced at such times. But we must not allow ourselves to depend upon extraordinary expedients. We must add the means by which the farmer may make his credit constantly and easily available and command when he will the capital by which to support and expand his business. We lag behind many other great countries of the modern world in attempting to do this. Systems of rural credit have been studied and developed on the other side of the water while we left our farmers to shift for themselves in the ordinary money market. You have but to look about you in any rural district to see the result, the handicap and embarrassment which have been put upon those who produce our food.

Conscious of this backwardness and neglect on our part, the congress recently authorized the creation of a special commission to study the various systems of rural credit which have been put into operation in Europe, and this commission is already prepared to report. Its report ought to make it easier for us to determine what methods will be best suited to our own farmers. I hope and believe that the committees of the senate and house will address themselves to this matter with the most fruitful results, and I believe that the studies and recently formed plans of the department of agriculture may be made to serve them very greatly in their work of framing appropriate and adequate legislation.

URGES CURRENCY REFORM TO BENEFIT THE FARMER.

President Wilson in his message urges the immediate passage of currency legislation. He asserts that business interests of the nation are waiting on the expected law before making large new investments or developing resources. The president also calls attention to conditions as they exist at present, which make it very difficult for the farmer to finance his crop. He urges in his annual message provisions that will safeguard the farmer, help his credit and prevent a repetition of the necessity for the government to deposit large sums of money in the southern and western states so as to aid the producer, as was the case last fall.

It would be indiscreet and presumptuous in any one to dogmatize upon so great and many sided a question, but I feel confident that common counsel will produce the results we must all desire.

UPHOLDS ANTI-TRUST LAW.

Recommends That It Be Supplemented With More Explicit Legislation to Facilitate Its Administration.

Turn from the farm to the world of business which centers in the city and in the factory, and I think that all thoughtful observers will agree that the immediate service we owe the business communities of the country is to prevent private monopoly more effectively than it has yet been prevented. I think it will be easily agreed that we should let the Sherman anti-trust law stand, unaltered, as it is, with its debatable ground about it, but that we should as much as possible reduce the area of that debatable ground by further and more explicit legislation, and should also supplement that great act by legislation which will not only clarify it but also facilitate its administration and make it fairer to all concerned.

No doubt we shall all wish, and the country will expect, this to be the central subject of our deliberations during the present session, but it is a subject so many sided and so deserving of careful and discriminating discussion that I shall take the liberty of addressing you upon it in a special message at a later date than this. It is of capital importance that the business men of this country should be relieved of all uncertainties of law with regard to their enterprises and investments and a clear path indicated which they can travel without anxiety. It is as important that they should be relieved of embarrassment and set free to prosper as that private monopoly should be destroyed. The ways of action should be thrown wide open.

FAVORS DIRECT ELECTIONS.

Would Retain Conventions, Delegates to Be Nominees For Office, Whose Duty It Would Be to Frame Platforms.

I turn to a subject which I hope can be handled promptly and without serious controversy of any kind. I mean the method of selecting nominees for the presidency of the United States. I feel confident that I do not misinterpret the wishes or the expectations of the country when I urge the prompt enactment of legislation which will provide for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of the several parties may choose their nominees for the presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions. I venture the suggestion that this legislation should provide for the retention of party conventions, but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platforms of the parties, and I suggest that these conventions should consist not of delegates chosen for this single purpose, but of the nominees for congress, the nominees for vacant seats in the senate of the United States, the senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees and the candidates for the presidency themselves, in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect.

PHILIPPINE CONTROL.

Must Hold Ultimate Independence In View and Strive to Fit Filipinos For Self Government at Future Date.

These are all matters of vital domestic concern, and besides them, outside the charmed circle of our own national life in which our affections command us, as well as our consciences, there stand out our obligations toward our territories over sea. Here we are trustees. Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines, are ours, indeed, but not ours to do what we please with. Such territories, once regarded as mere possessions, are no longer to be selfishly exploited; they are part of the domain of public conscience and of serviceable and enlightened statesmanship.

We must administer them for the people who live in them and with the same sense of responsibility to them as toward our own people in our domestic affairs. No doubt we shall successfully enough bind Porto Rico and the Hawaiian Islands to ourselves by ties of justice and interest and affection, but the performance of our duty toward the Philippines is a more difficult and debatable matter. We can satisfy the obligations of generous justice toward the people of Porto Rico by giving the ample and familiar rights and privileges accorded our own citizens in our own territories and our obligations toward the people of Hawaii by perfecting the provisions for self government already granted them, but in the Philippines we must go further. We must hold steadily in view their ultimate independence, and we must move toward the time of that independence as steadily as the way can be cleared and the foundations thoughtfully and permanently laid.

Acting under the authority conferred upon the president by congress, I have already accorded the people of the islands a majority in both houses of their legislative body by appointing five instead of four native citizens to the membership of the commission. I believe that in this way we shall make proof of their capacity in counsel and their sense of responsibility in the exercise of political power and that the success of this step will be sure to clear our view for the steps which are to follow.

Step by step we should extend and perfect the system of self government in the islands, making test of them and modifying them as experience discloses their successes and their failures; that we should more and more put under the control of the native citizens of the archipelago the essential instruments of their life, their local instrumentalities of government, their schools, all the common interests of their communities and so by counsel and experience set up a government which all the world will see to be suitable to a people whose affairs are under their own control.

At last, I hope and believe, we are beginning to gain the confidence of the Filipino peoples. By their counsel and experience, rather than by our own, we shall learn how best to serve them and how soon it will be possible and wise to withdraw our supervision. Let us once find the path and set out with firm and confident tread upon it, and we shall not wander from it or linger upon it.

PROBLEM IN ALASKA.

Urges Development by Nation of Natural Resources and Full Territorial Form of Government.

A duty faces us with regard to Alaska which seems to me very pressing and very imperative; perhaps I should say a double duty, for it concerns both the political and the material development of the territory. The people of Alaska should be given the full territorial form of government, and Alaska, as a storehouse, should be unlocked. One key to it is a system of railways. These the government should itself build and administer, and the ports and terminals it should itself control in the interest of all who wish to use them for the service and development of the country and its people.

But the construction of railways is only the first step—is only thrusting in the key to the storehouse and throwing back the lock and opening the door. How the tempting resources of the country are to be exploited is another matter, to which I shall take the liberty of from time to time calling your attention, for it is a policy which must be worked out by well considered stages, not upon theory but upon lines of practical expediency. It is part of our general problem of conservation. We have a freer hand in working out the problem in Alaska than in the states of the Union, and yet the principle and object are the same wherever we touch it. We must use the resources of the country, not lock them up.

There need be no conflict or jealousy as between state and federal authorities, for there can be no essential dif-

PRESIDENT MAKES KNOWN HIS PHILIPPINE POLICY.

President Wilson's policy toward the Philippine Islands is made clear in his message. He urges the development of the Philippines, always keeping in view ultimate independence of the islanders. While he does not believe they are ready for self government today he believes that eventually they will be. He points out improvement that has recently been made by calling attention to the fact that more natives have been appointed on the Philippine commission than was the case previously.

ference of purpose between them. The resources in question must be used, but not destroyed or wasted; used, but not monopolized upon any narrow idea of individual rights as against the abiding interests of communities. That a policy can be worked out by conference and concession which will release these resources and yet not jeopard or dissipate them I for one have no doubt, and it can be done on lines of regulation which need be no less acceptable to the people and government of the nation at large, whose heritage these resources are. We must bend our counsels to this end. A common purpose ought to make agreement easy.

EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY ACT.

Urges Legislation to Safeguard Workmen Both on Land and Sea—Points Out Needed Economical Reforms.

Three or four matters of special importance and significance I beg that you will permit me to mention in closing.

Our bureau of mines ought to be equipped and empowered to render even more effectual service than it renders now in improving the conditions of mine labor and making the mines more economically productive as well as more safe. This is an all important part of the work of conservation, and the conservation of human life and energy lies even nearer to our interest than the preservation from waste of our material resources.

We owe it in mere justice to the railway employees of the country to provide for them a fair and effective employer's liability act; and a law that we can stand by in this matter will be no less to the advantage of those who administer the railroads of the country than to the advantage of those whom they employ. The experience of a large number of the states abundantly proves this.

We ought to devote ourselves to meeting pressing demands of plain justice like this as earnestly as to the accomplishment of political and economic reforms. Social justice comes first. Law is the machinery for its realization and is vital only as it expresses and embodies it.

An international congress for the discussion of all questions that affect safety at sea is now sitting in London at the suggestion of our own government. So soon as the conclusions of that congress can be learned and considered we ought to address ourselves, among other things, to the prompt alleviation of the very unsafe, unjust and burdensome conditions which now surround the employment of sailors and render it extremely difficult to obtain the services of spirited and competent men such as every ship needs if it is to be safely handled and brought to port.

May I not express the very real pleasure I have experienced in co-operating with this congress and sharing with it the labors of common service to which it has devoted itself so unreservedly during the past seven months of uncomplaining concentration upon the business of legislation? Surely it is a proper and pertinent part of my report on "The State of the Union" to express my admiration for the diligence, the good temper and the full comprehension of public duty which has already been manifested by both the houses, and I hope that it may not be deemed an impertinent intrusion of myself into the picture if I say with how much and how constant satisfaction I have availed myself of the privilege of putting my time and energy at their disposal alike in counsel and in action.

Oyster Shells as Medicine.

Ground oyster shells were given by the medieval doctors to children suffering from rickets and scrofula. Now it appears that they were right. The shells contain lime, nitrogen, iron, sulphur, manganese, magnesia, flour, bromide, phosphoric acid and iodine, all excellent for feeble children. They say that if growing children were to take powdered oyster shells in their food the teeth would be improved.

Suit Against Butter and Egg Trust To Be Heard at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Chicago club-women, leaders in the crusade against exorbitant egg prices, were jubilant when District Attorney Wilkerson announced that the pending anti-trust suit against the Chicago butter and egg board would go to trial this week before Federal Judge Landis. The government alleges that members of the board arbitrarily fixed quotations on butter and eggs irrespective of the price of these commodities in the open market.

FLEE FROM CHIHUAHUA

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 2.—Reports reached El Paso that Chihuahua city, capital of the state of the same name, has been abandoned by its federal defenders; that part of them have headed for Ojinaga, on the Texas border, northeast of Chihuahua city, and that the others are attempting to retreat south. Pancho Villa, rebel commander in Juarez, declared when told of the report that it was true. He said his men who went south wired it to him.

Francisco Escudero, foreign minister in the Carranza provisional cabinet, confirmed it also. The reports say that the evacuation took place Sunday, following the return of the federalists defeated by Villa near Juarez last week, and that the citizens have placed Frederico Moye, a business man, in temporary charge of the city pending the arrival of the rebel army of investment.

The capture of Juarez by the rebels under Pancho Villa was followed by the looting of many stores and the sale of goods to American dealers. This is confirmed from many sources in El Paso. The loot will total a half million pesos.

Without seeing a single federal, the advance guard of Villa's army reached the station of Carrizal, according to telegraphic advices received by General Villa. Carrizal is 97 miles south of Juarez, on the Mexican Central railway, and is nearly half way to the city of Chihuahua.

The federalists who fled south last week are said to be scattered and demoralized. The 3,500 rebels now at Carrizal will march south to Montezuma, 119 miles from Juarez and await the arrival of Villa, who will take personal command of the operations against the capital.

Francisco Escudero, foreign minister in the provisional cabinet of Carranza, who is now here treating with Villa, sounded a note of warning from the rebels to the United States relative to intervention or mediation. "The fall of Huerta is inevitable and the only slight hope for him is the United States," said Escudero. "Any arrangement made by the United States with the de facto government will work ruin for Mexico and will not be recognized by the Constitutionalists' party. There is no friction between Carranza and Villa, for Villa is considered the supreme military commander of Chihuahua."

Starvation is supposed to have caused the federalists to quit Chihuahua. General Villa received a telegram from Carranza at Hermosillo to the effect that the federalists in Culiacan, capital of Sinaloa, had evacuated the town.

SOLICITORS ARE BRANDED A FAKE

Party of Youths Arrested Are Said to Have Worked Scheme Similar to One Worked in This City During the Past Few Days—Gang Is Arrested in Indiana.

Beware of magazine solicitors who work the "vote for me" game. This is the warning issued by cities where the solicitors have been operating. It is claimed the same scheme has been thrust upon local citizens the past few days, and most of them are familiar with the scheme.

The Chillicothe Gazette of Monday has the following to say regarding the youthful solicitors:

"...ere you asked to help a young man to get a college course of scholarship about two weeks ago? If you did and paid 49 cents for subscription to several magazines, in order to promote the young man's welfare, you were stung."

"The band of solicitors are said to be fakers, pure and simple, and moreover they are also said to have left without paying their board bill due at the Haynes hotel."

"The police authorities have been after them and according to a dispatch in the Cincinnati Enquirer from Columbus, Indiana, they have caught them there. The dispatch reads as follows:

"Columbus, Ind., Nov. 27.—William J. Stanley, of Prince Edward Island, Marion Stanley, 20 years old, of Everett, Mass., who says she is Stanley's wife; Samuel L. Walker, of Pittsburg, Pa.; Bernard McGovern, Regina, Sask., Can.; David Katshi, Pittsburg, Pa.; Walter F. Albert, Cincinnati, Ohio; Herman Silver, Pittsburg, Pa., and Roy R. Rodkey, Detroit, Mich., magazine solicitors, arrested on a charge that they obtained money under false pretenses, pleaded not guilty in city court here this afternoon."

"All except the girl were sent to jail in default of $100 bond each. The court committed the girl, but later released her on her own recognizance. Stanley Rodkey and Katshi are also charged with conspiracy to commit a felony to which they pleaded not guilty.

"The defendants were working for a New York company. The affidavits charged that the solicitors used assumed names, gave wrong residences and claimed they were trying to get money with which to take college courses. They were taking yearly subscriptions to magazines, which they carried, for 49 cents."

"The band is said to have done a big business here."

OVER A BILLION

Needed to Run the Government of the United States.

Washington, Dec. 2.—It will cost $1,108,000,000 to run the United States government in 1915, according to departmental estimates submitted to congress by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. Though the government business will be much vaster in 1915, the estimates call for only about $34,000,000 more than was appropriated for 1914. There is an $11,000,000 cut in the pension roll. The total pension estimate is $169,150,000.

Among the public building appropriations recommended by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo are these from Ohio: Alliance, $5,000; Bellaire, $31,000; Cambridge, $32,000; Dayton, $50,000; Newark, $50,000; Piqua, $110,000; Salem, $38,000; Steubenville, $20,000.

River and harbor estimates include:

ANOTHER BUS TO BE ADDED

SUFFRAGE SPEAKER LIKENS SUFFRAGE TO A RELAY RACE

George W. Baker Announces That Second Motor Bus Will Soon Be Added to Handle Traffic Between Jeffersonville, South Solon, Sedalia, Bookwalter and South Charleston.

"Give us motor bus service," is the cry raised by a large number of farmers in and near Bookwalter and Sedalia, and also along one of the roads leading from Jeffersonville to South Solon.

The farmers have been busy the past few days circulating a petition asking for a motor bus to connect them with the outside world, and promising to improve the route of travel and render all assistance in their power to make the service a success.

And Mr. Baker, of this city, has decided to place another bus in commission by early spring, covering the territory of Jeffersonville, South Solon, Sedalia and Bookwalter, with the territory to South Charleston. Two cars may be added, one a summer car, and every one is pleased with the service rendered.

The schedule adopted for the service is as follows: Leaves Jeffersonville 7 a. m., 9:45 a. m., 2 p. m., 5 p. m. and on Saturday nights, 10 p. m., returning at one o'clock Sunday morning.

Saturday night 25 persons left S. Charleston on the last car. A theater party from Jeffersonville will be taken to Springfield one night this week.

Hartman Theater

Attractions for Week of December 8th

"The Doll Girl," one of the season's brightest and best musical comedies, is to be seen at the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Tuesday, and Wednesday, December 9-10, with a Wednesday matinee and will serve to show those two exceedingly clever and popular stars, Richard Carle and Hattie Williams in the best roles which it has been their good fortune to secure in a long time. Surrounding the stars is a company that is immensely strong in its collective cleverness. Prominent among its members are Will West, Charles McNaughton, Robert Evett, Dorothy Webb, and Sheridan Simpson. There is a large chorus and the work has been staged with a lavish disregard of expense. New York applauded the comedy, its graceful tinkling melodies, its praiseworthy humor and its clever aggregation of comedians, singers and dancers for four months and the work easily earned the right to be classed among the few big successes of the season.

On Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Dec. 11-12-13-14, the Hartman Theater, Columbus, offers an attraction that will appeal to everyone. It is a motion picture of the story of East Lynne. There is no book that was more widely read by the older generation of today than this story and to see it portrayed in motion pictures will be a welcome opportunity. The younger people who have not read the story will want to take advantage of the chance to see the story of which they have heard their mothers talk so much. It is said that "East Lynne" has been translated into more languages than any literary product except the Bible which is testimony to the wonderful charm of the story. A splendid company of actors was chosen to produce this film and it is given in such detail as would be impossible in a stage version. Those who have seen it pronounce it the most beautiful, best enacted picture they have ever seen.

Well, what about the minaret gown? If it is not to bring back the bustle, life may be worth living.

By Associated Press.

Washington, December 1.—The long struggle for woman suffrage in Illinois was likened here tonight to a relay race. Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Evanston, Ill., at the annual convention of the National Suffrage Association described how the work had been carried forward for 58 years until the recent action of the legislature in voting to place the suffrage amendment to the state constitution before the people had brought the goal in sight. The race, she said, was likely to last three years longer.

"This has been a relay race," said Mrs. McCulloch, "where certain runners pressed forward exhaustedly until they struck hands with their fresh youthful successors, who in turn pushed on with ceaseless vigor until they, too, exhausted by the race, sent another fresh runner to spur hotly forward toward the great goal. Not for personal renown did each dauntless soul brave the discouragements of the race but for the sake of all women."

"Through these years smaller, less important goals were reached by these great women and their co-workers—equality in laws relating to marriage and divorce, to descent of real and personal property, to guardianship of children, equal opportunity to enter school and professions, and to hold certain offices. Illinois has probably the best laws concerning women to be found outside of the full suffrage states."

The Illinois women were aided, Mrs. McCulloch said, by groups of men in the Federation of Labor and in the Socialist, Prohibition and Progressive parties. Individuals' Republicans and Democrats, however, showed their interest through the preferential vote at the Chicago primaries in April, 1912. Although most of those who voted at this time were members of the two older parties, whose state platforms were silent on the subject of suffrage and supposed to be opposed, 71,354 persons voted for woman suffrage, "the largest vote for suffrage that has been cast in any city of the world." This vote the Illinois women knew, presaged future victory.

The speaker told, how of late years they had ceased to depend upon volunteer workers and paid the expenses of women lobbyists.

and catches "sun-tads" and little catfish, but the law might easily apply only to boys and men over a certain age, say 16. By the time a boy is 16 he becomes a full-fledged fisherman, if he is going to fish at all, and has come to the time when he wants bass and not little cats. Thorough fishermen would probably all approve of such a license law and strict regulations.—Chillicothe News.

TEAMSTERS STRIKE TIES UP INDIANAPOLIS

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 2.—Business conditions in this city are in a state of chaos owing to the strike of teamsters and chauffeurs, and though the city is not completely tied up, there is so much present difficulty in making deliveries and the future is so uncertain that practically all hauling has been abandoned.

Attempts to send out wagons from mills, factories and wholesale and retail houses were met by squads of strike sympathizers, who stoned the drivers and drove them from their wagons. If the driver was fortunate enough to reach his destination unmolested he found the union employees at the place of delivery hostile, refusing to let him unload or shutting the door in his face and refusing to assist him. A score of arrests were made.

No coal was delivered anywhere, the dealers refusing to attempt deliveries after several of their drivers had been attacked and injured.

State of Indiana Will Not Have a New Constitution.

Washington, Dec. 2.—A new constitution proposed for the state of Indiana by the legislature of that state, and which had been prepared under the direction of Thomas R. Marshall, then governor, now vice president of the United States, was put to sleep permanently when the United States supreme court dismissed a petition filed by attorneys appointed by Governor Marshall for a writ of error to the supreme court of Indiana. The later court had affirmed the judgment of the lower court enjoining the governor and other election officers of that state from submitting the new constitution to the voters for ratification at a general election.

DRINK BEER ON SIDEWALK

Four Saloons at Dillonvale Unable to Care For the Crush.

Steubenville, O., Dec. 2.—Four saloons are inadequate to assuage the thirst of Dillonvale, a coal mining town in Jefferson county. Until 10 days ago there were 21 saloons there. Now there are only four. County License Commissioner Joseph Gorman wrote the state board that, though each of the four contained large bars, the crush was so great that many of the drinkers had to take their beer outside and drink it on the sidewalk. Because of the demand, there are numerous applicants for wholesale licenses, and the state board has been asked if it is permissible for a wholesaler to allow a customer a drink as a sample of what he is asked to buy in gallon lots. The state board replied emphatically in the negative.

C. & O. WINS VICTORY IN BIG DAMAGE CASE

By Associated Press.

Cincinnati, Ohio, December 2.—The C. & O. R. R. won a victory in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here today when it ordered back to the District Court for re-trial the McKell case.

The case was appealed from the decision of the District court, in which the heirs of Thomas McKell of Chillicothe, Ohio, were given judgment for $300,000 against the railroad for alleged breach of contract.

The contention was made that the railroad after entering into a contract to haul McKell's coal from the mines in West Virginia, entered into a coal mine business itself and used all its local facilities hauling its own coal, leaving McKell no way of getting his coal to market.

The case was sent back because the court believed the amount of damages awarded was speculative, as the evidence showed no definite way it arrived at a valuation of $300,000.

FEDERALS SCATTER BEFORE THE REBELS

By Associated Press.

Juarez, Mexico, Dec. 2.—Hasty preparations were under way today in the Rebel ranks for the occupation of Chihuahua, the capital of Chihuahua State, which is reported to have been evacuated by the Federals because of threatened starvation of its 35,000 population.

Pointing out that of the important Federal strongholds in the north only Monterey and Guaymas remained, General Francisco Villa, the Rebel leader said that Chihuahua would be made the base of aggressive activities southward. Just when forces will be sent to pursue Gen. Mercado, Huerta Military Governor, who was reported to be fleeing to the United States border and General Ojinaga, with 200 famished soldiers and Salazar, said to have taken to the mountains, Villa declined to say definitely, but said the Rebel advance toward Mexico

City would continue briskly. General Mercado is said to have decided on flight to the American border so that he would communicate with Provisional President Huerta. Communication between Chihuahua and Mexico City has been impossible for weeks.

By Associated Press.

A GAIN wireless triumphs as the greatest life saver of the age. The case of the burning Spanish liner Balmes shows, as did the tragedies of the Volturno and the Titanic, what a marvelous thing for humanity wireless at sea is at the present day. The Balmes caught fire about 500 miles from Bermuda, and her wireless calls for help brought the Cunard liner Pannonia. All the passengers, 103, were taken off in lifeboats and placed aboard the Pannonia safely, though the sea was high and the wind strong. The crew of the Balmes stuck to their ship, and the vessel was able to reach Bermuda under its own steam, being conveyed by the Pannonia in case it was necessary to take off the crew. The Pannonia then proceeded to her destination, New York, with the rescued passengers. This picture was taken from the Pannonia while the passengers were being taken from the burning ship.

PROMISES MANY RADICAL REFORMS

Mrs. Ella Stewart of Chicago, Stirs Suffrage Convention by Eloquent Recital of What Will be Result When Women Have Full Suffrage —Thinks Women Will Soon Play Most Important Part in Bringing About Needed Reforms.

By Associated Press.

Washington, December 1.—Glorification of municipal life, reform of the schools, jails, poor-houses and saloons and a feminine influence in settling national and international problems—all this was prophesied for Illinois women will illumine at the annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association tonight by Mrs. Ella S. Stewart of Chicago. Mrs. Stewart formerly was president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association and secretary of the National Association. She described the power which the women of her state would receive from the new Illinois law.

"Without prophesying too much," she said, "we have faith to believe that the torch which has been lighted for Illinois women will illuminate some of the dark places of government. It will cleanse and glorify municipal life and guide Illinois children into safer paths."

"Our new law establishes a bond between Illinois womanhood and the White House. By their vote for presidential electors they may influence national problems and international policies."

"This section of our law will save us from the myopia which we might acquire from always bending with microscope over municipal needs."

"From distant periphery we will occasionally turn our telescope to the nation's center and take a look at our share of its vast issues—war or peace, the development of industry, commerce, agriculture, and the arts of civilization. But for the present we will be fairly busy with the microscope. The township, city and village will furnish us our field."

"The township suffrage is to open up a new era for the Illinois women of the farm. They may vote for assessor and they are not likely to scorn that vote, as they have long been in accord with Samuel Adams and James Otis."

"They may vote for the supervisor and highway commissioner and township officers. Our supervisors are the county housekeepers. They have charge of jails, poor-houses and other county property; and administer the charity of the county. Our state is shamed by the many jails and poor-houses which fail to reflect modern ideas of sanitation and humanity. The women voters' broom will find its task."

"We hope that votes for women will immediately institute a day when school houses shall be as sanitary as hospitals, beautiful and well-equipped—no more thirty and forty dollar a month teachers—but such salaries as a grateful state should pay its most important servants."

"This section also gives women a vote on the licensing of saloons, and in every such election in Illinois so far there has been a demonstration of the antiseptics of the women's vote. They apparently have needed no coaching."

RAILROAD BILLS ARE PRESENTED

Washington, Dec. 2. — Three bills, proposing important changes in the laws under which the interstate commerce commission supervises the operation of railroads, were introduced in the house by Mr. Adamson of Georgia. As Mr. Adamson is chairman of the committee on interstate commerce, it is assumed the bills will be used as a basis for legislation to be passed this session enlarging the powers of the interstate commerce commission. The Adamson committee will shape in part the anti-trust program of the administration. It will handle all bills dealing with railroads, while the judiciary committee, of which Mr. Clayton of Alabama is chairman, will frame all measures relating to industrial corporations.

In a statement with his bills, Chairman Adamson declares he stands for the policy of government regulation instead of government ownership. He strongly intimates that unless the powers of the commission are broadened, the sentiment for government ownership will be accelerated.

The first bill in the Adamson series is aimed at the overcapitalization of railroads. The second bill provides that all corporations complying with the anti-trust laws shall so certify to the secretary of commerce, who thereupon shall place the names of the corporations on what is termed the "commercial directory." Corporations so registered will be immediately recognized as "good trusts," as distinguished from "bad trusts" which fail or refuse to register. The third bill requires railroads to publish their freight and passenger schedules in at least one newspaper publication in every county in which they operate.

Most people think it more foolish to give than to receive.

What Does It Mean?

There is much for the people to think about in the facts and figures given in the following news item published broadcast over the land.

The nation's jewelry bill for 1913 will approximate $57,000,000, according to statistics of jewelry importations just published by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. This is declared to be more than 30 per cent in excess of the highest record yet established. The former record was $44,250,000, in 1906. The bureau declares that the value of all the diamonds in this country has reached the enormous sum of nearly one billion dollars. To this must be added the importations of other precious stones, the value of which is not estimated in the statistics. Cut diamonds showed the greatest gains in recent years. For the first nine months of 1913 there were imported $23,500,000 in these gems as against $18,000,000 last year. The total of all precious stones for the same period was $43,333,333 as against $32,250,000 last year. These figures are declared by the bureau to warrant the belief that this year's importations will greatly exceed those of former years.

Many people, but not so many now as there would have been a few years ago, might jump to the conclusion that it meant prosperity.

Well, it does mean prosperity of a certain sort, but is it that wide spread prosperity of a nation in which all share in proportion to their ability, industry and thrift.

Does it indicate more of a hot house prosperity—a prosperity for the few at the expense of the many.

Think about these facts—they are worthy of thought—and determine if you can, the direction to which they point.

The Prizes of the Panama Canal Are Not Going to Us Unless We Strive For Them

By JOHN BARRETT, Director General of the Panama Canal.
American Union

THERE is a growing need that every manufacturing and productive city and section in the United States should be UP AND DOING AND GETTING READY FOR THE PANAMA CANAL. It is equally important that cities and states should realize the present and prospective value of pan-American commerce.

We have the enterprise, the men, the capital, the industries, the location and, I hope, the ambition which can ENABLE US TO PROFIT ENORMOUSLY from the opening of the canal and from the development of the exchange of trade with the twenty sister Latin-American republics.

We cannot, however, simply rest upon our present laurels and be satisfied.

We must REALIZE THE COMPETITION WHICH WE MUST MEET with the great manufacturing, exporting and importing centers of Europe and even Asia.

THE PRIZES OF THE PANAMA CANAL ARE NOT GOING TO US UNLESS THEY ARE FOUGHT FOR WITH UNREMITTING EFFORT.

IT WILL REQUIRE TIME FOR THE FULL GOOD OF THE CANAL TO BE REALIZED by any city or section of the United States. Business must adapt itself to the new conditions, and the accompanying INFLUENCES OF DEMAND AND SUPPLY MUST BE THOROUGHLY STUDIED AND MASTERED.

Poetry For Today

WOMAN.

When sentiment usurps her mind,
To reason deaf, to logic blind,
A mystery is womankind;
But in her darkness
She proves to you she has a mind
Of wondrous clearness.

She does her thinking with her heart
And swears it is the better part.
And when toward a goal you'd start
(She'd have you do it!)
She'll give your brain a flying start
and beat you to it!

Although you glimpse her hopes and fears,
A mystery she still appears,
Interpreting her smiles and tears
Is simply guessing,
And yet her presence through the years
Your life is blessing.

She is the fire beneath the pot
That keeps the world a-pipin' hot.
In Life's short story she's the plot
There's none above her!
And knowing that you know her not
You know you love her!
—Grif Alexander.

PROBING HIGH COST OF LIVING

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—State Auditor A. V. Donahey announced he would appoint special inspectors to investigate charges of high living by officers and employees of state institutions. He says:

"I have every reason to believe that officers and employees in our state institutions are at the present time indulging in extravagant living. Nothing short of a thorough investigation and the installation of a new system of institution accounting will show the extent of their extravagant living. I shall recommend and insist to the state board of administration that separate accounts be kept of the food consumed by officers, by employees and by inmates."

Donahey added that he would recommend that all officers and employees of state institutions, more than 3,000 in all, be required to pay their board at the institutions and that their salaries be raised to meet the proposed requirement.

MINE WORKERS ARE INDICTED

Pueblo, Colo., Dec. 2.—An attempt to secure a monopoly of labor is charged in 25 indictments returned by the federal grand jury here against national officers of the United Mine Workers of America. The men named are: John P. White of Indianapolis, president; Frank J. Hayes, vice president, and William Green of Coshocton, secretary-treasurer.

Conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce in violation of the federal anti-trust law is charged in indictments against officials of the United Mine Workers of America as follows:

Frank J. Hayes, John R. Lawson, Adolph Germer, Robert Uhlrich, A. B. McGary, James Morgan, Charles Batey and Edward Wallace, editor of a labor paper at Trinidad.

Some other indictments were returned against miners for alleged depredations against mine property.

The jury prepared a long report, in which mining conditions are reviewed. It ends with recommendations that the mining laws be more diligently enforced, that the governor should be empowered by the legislature to regulate or suspend the sale of ammunition and explosives during strike troubles; that in cases of disputes both parties should be required by law to operate the mines pending settlement. Financial interest of coal companies in saloons is denounced as reprehensible.

Methods of United Mine Workers are severely condemned, the report saying:

"The methods of the United Mine Workers of America in their endeavors to force recognition of their union by the coal mine operators in

Hair Doesn't Die-- It Has to Be Killed

Hair often continues to live and grow long after the death of the body. But it is often killed through neglect or misuse. Almost always the woman or man whose hair is falling out, or is stringy, lifeless and dull-looking, is entirely to blame because of not giving it the proper care. It is easy to take care of the hair—easy to make it more beautiful. Use Harmony Hair Beautifier, to make it glossy, soft and silky, and Harmony Shampoo to keep hair and scalp thoroughly clean.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, delightfully perfumed with true rose, is very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, giving an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair, and leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. ## D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institution on application), writes regarding a patient:

"The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

this state are an insult to conservative and law-abiding labor. They have brought experienced strike agitators and have armed hundreds of irresponsible aliens who have become a menace to the peace and prosperity and even the lives of citizens. They created open insurrection in southern Colorado and have resorted to measures which all fair-minded labor organizations repudiate. The officers in charge of many of the tent colonies confess their inability to control the men whom they have armed and aroused."

MANY MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON

Regular Session of City Council Held Last Night, and More Discussion of Water Company Difficulty Takes Place When Communication From Myers Is Read—Other Affairs Receive Attention.

A long session was held by the City Council Monday night, and quite a number of matters were considered and action taken upon part of them.

The water works dispute again came up through a letter written by President Harvey Myers, and presented by Councilman Durant. The letter was a lengthy one and in addition to touching upon the subject of non-payment of water rentals which are being held up by the city until the Water Company fulfills its agreement, and asking for Council to take action indicating whether or not the Water Company could install meters instead of using the flat rate, and asking permission to use electric power instead of the present power. Pres. Myers stated that the double-suction asked by the city, and which the Water Company is alleged to have agreed more than a year ago, to construct, would cost some $1200 and no returns could be secured from it.

Council took up the matter, refused to pay the rentals, and passed a resolution to the effect that it was the belief of Council that meters could be installed if necessary under the present contract, but no formal action was taken on the question of consenting to electrical power. A petition asking for the construction of a cinder walk on Draper street, to give the school children a path to prevent them from wading through mud and water, was presented, and after some discussion, the cinder walk was ordered constructed. Mayor Smith opposed granting the sidewalk.

The Service Director was authorized to construct a suitable approach to the engine house to be in readiness for the new motor fire truck. The matter of expending the $1000 left out of the $10,000 in bonds issued for fire equipment, for fire hose, was discussed, and the solicitor is to ascertain if any technicality opposes the action.

Improvement of the alley near the Dahl-Millikan plant was authorized, to be done under the direction of the Service Director.

Upon request of Will E. Dale an extension of the Paint street sewer was authorized, providing the money was obtainable.

City Solicitor Rankin presented the assessing ordinance covering the alley improvement between Main and Fayette from Court to East and this was passed.

The meeting was marked by lengthy discussions.

CORPORATION LINE TO BE EXTENDED

Jeffersonville citizens feel that their hustling town should increase the size of her girdle, and the County Commissioners will next Saturday take action upon an application to extend the corporation limits to include quite a little territory adjoining the town, and which promises to build up rapidly.

The increase of territory covered by the town will add quite a number of citizens to the present population of Jeffersonville.

Action on the proposed extension was to have been taken by the County Commissioners at their meeting Monday, but owing to the press of other matters, it was postponed until Saturday.

YOUNG MAN IS CRUSHED UNTIL BACK IS BROKEN

Roy Brown, Employed by Clarence Shepard, of the Waterloo Pike, Lays in Hospital at Point of Death With Little Hope of Recovery—Caught Between Wagon and Shed and Crushed.

With his back broken where he was caught and crushed while driving a load of corn into a shed, Roy Brown, aged 20, a farm hand, employed by Clarence Shepard, six miles east of this city on the Waterloo pike, is now confined to the Fayette hospital, and has been suffering the most excruciating pain. His recovery is very doubtful.

Monday the young man, whose home has been in this city, where he is well known, was assisting Mr. Shepard in cribbing corn, and had a large load on and was in the act of driving into a shed for the purpose of unloading the corn. As he neared the driveway, where the overhead beams were rather low, he attempted to jump from the wagon, but the horses made a sudden lunge and he was caught in a crouching position and crushed between the beam and the load of corn.

When Mr. Shepard reached him after his agonized cries had given warning of his injury, he found that the youth had been dragged the entire length of the wagon, and that he was seriously injured. He called assistance and removed him to the house. A physician was summoned from this city, and after an examination, called McCoy's ambulance and the young man was removed to the Fayette hospital. His back was broken between the fifth and sixth vertebra.

During the trip the injured man was in a delirious condition.

He is still in a serious condition, and cannot bear to be touched without suffering terrible agony. He is almost entirely helpless. Physicians believe he has a hard fight before him if he recovers.

DEATH MESSAGE RECEIVED THIS MORNING

Tuesday morning Washington relatives received the sad message of the death of Mrs. Jennie Bateman at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Horace Miller, in Middletown, her death taking place at six o'clock.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Bateman was seized with a serious and sudden attack of the heart, the trouble proving a fatal one.

Her sisters, Misses Lizzie and Anna Bell, and Mrs. John E. Green were called to Middletown and were with Mrs. Bateman's two children, Frank and Mrs. Ada Miller, during her last illness.

Mrs. Bateman's death came as a great shock and grief to her family, and also to a large circle of friends in this city, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family. Her entire life had been spent here until two years ago, when occurred the death of her husband, Ex-Mayor C. C. Bateman, and she went to Middletown to make her home with her daughter.

Mrs. Bateman was one of those unselfish, devoted women who make a beautiful home and whose loss is mostly keenly felt in the home circle.

The remains will be brought from Middletown to this city, arriving at 6:14, C. H. & D. Wednesday evening, and will be taken to the home of the Misses Bell, on North street.

Funeral services will be held at the Bell residence Thursday, at 1 p. m. Burial in the Washington cemetery.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Chief Executive Discusses the Mexican Crisis, the Currency Bill, the Sherman Law, Nomination of President by Direct Vote at Primaries and Other Matters of Importance.

Washington, D. C.—In his message, delivered at a joint session of the houses of congress at the beginning of the second session of the Sixty-third congress, President Wilson urged immediate currency legislation, devoted considerable space to the needs of the farmers and referred to the Mexican crisis. The Sherman anti-trust law, he said, should be changed so that its exact meaning would be clearer. The president also urged the choice of presidential nominees by the direct

PRIMARY NOMINATIONS FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

I urge the prompt enactment of legislation which will provide for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of the several parties may choose their nominees for the presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions. I venture the suggestion that this legislation should provide for the retention of party conventions, but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platforms of the parties, and I suggest that these conventions should consist not of delegates chosen for this single purpose, but of the nominees for congress, the nominees for vacant seats in the senate of the United States, the senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees and the candidates for the presidency themselves, in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect.

vote of the people expressed at primaries. The message in full is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Congress—In pursuance of my constitutional duty to "give to the congress information of the state of the Union" I take the liberty of addressing you on several matters which ought, as it seems to me, particularly to engage the attention of your honorable body, as of all who study the welfare and progress of the nation.

I shall ask your indulgence if I venture to depart in some degree from the usual custom of setting before you in formal review the many matters which have engaged the attention and called for the action of the several departments of the government or which look to them for early treatment in the future, because the list is long, very long, and would suffer in the abbreviation to which I should have to subject it. I shall submit to you the reports of the heads of several departments in which these subjects are set forth in careful details and beg that they may receive the thoughtful attention of your committees and of all members of the congress who may have the leisure to study them. Their obvious importance, as constituting the very substance of the business of the government, makes comment and emphasis on my part unnecessary.

WANTS TREATIES RATIFIED.

Asserts That United States Leads in Peace Negotiations.

The country, I am thankful to say, is at peace with all the world, and many happy manifestations multiply about us of a growing cordiality and sense of community of interest among the nations, foreshadowing an age of settled peace and good will. More and more readily each decade do the nations manifest their willingness to bind themselves by solemn treaty to the processes of peace, the processes of frankness and fair concession. So far the United States has stood at the front of such negotiations. She will, I earnestly hope and confidently believe, give fresh proof of her sincere adherence to the cause of international friendship by ratifying the several treaties of arbitration awaiting renewal by the senate.

In addition to these it has been the privilege of the department of state to gain the assent, in principle, of no less than thirty-one nations, representing four-fifths of the population of the world, to the negotiation of treaties by which it shall be agreed that whenever differences of interest or of policy arise which cannot be resolved by the ordinary processes of diplomacy they shall be publicly analyzed, discussed and reported upon by a tribunal chosen by the parties before either nation determines its course of action.

There is only one possible standard by which to determine controversies between the United States and other nations, and that is compounded of these two elements—our own honor and our obligations to the peace of the world. A test so compounded ought really to be made to govern both the establishment of new treaty obligations and the interpretation of those already assumed.

HUERTA MUST GO.

Predicts Downfall of "Usurper" Who "Cast Aside Even Pretense of Legal Right and Declared Himself Dictator."

There is but one cloud upon our horizon. That has shown itself to the south of us and hangs over Mexico. There can be no certain prospect of peace in America until General Huerta has surrendered his usurped authority in Mexico. Until it is understood on all hands, indeed, such pretended governments will not be countenanced or dealt with by the government of the United States. We are the friends of constitutional government in America. We are more than its friends; we are its champions, because in no other way can our neighbors to whom we would wish in every way to make proof of our friendship work out their own development in peace and liberty.

Mexico has no government. The attempt to maintain one at the City of Mexico has broken down, and a mere military despotism has been set up which has hardly more than the semblance of national authority. It originated in the usurpation of Victoriano Huerta, who, after a brief attempt to play the part of constitutional president, has at last cast aside even the pretense of legal right and declared himself dictator. As a consequence a condition of affairs now exists in Mexico which has made it doubtful whether even the most elementary and fundamental rights either of her own people or of the citizens of other countries resident within her territory can long be successfully safeguarded and which threatens if long continued to imperil the interests of peace, order and tolerable life in the lands immediately to the south of us.

Even if the usurper had succeeded in his purposes, in despite of the constitution of the republic and the rights of its people, he would have set up nothing but a precarious and hateful power which could have lasted but a little while and whose eventual downfall would have left the country in a more deplorable condition than ever. But he has not succeeded. He has forfeited the respect and the moral support even of those who were at one time willing to see him succeed. Little by little he has been completely isolated. By a little every day his power and prestige are crumbling, and the collapse is not far away. We shall not, I believe, be obliged to alter our policy of watchful waiting. And then, when the end comes, we shall hope to see constitutional order restored in distressed Mexico by the concert and energy of such of her leaders as prefer the liberty of their people to their own ambitions.

VIEWS ON CURRENCY BILL.

Urges Measure That Will Prove Beneficial to Farmers—Hopes For Quick Action.

I turn to matters of domestic concern. You already have under consideration a bill for the reform of our system of banking and currency, for which the country waits with impatience, as for something fundamental to its whole business life and necessary to set credit free from arbitrary and artificial restraints. I need not say how earnestly I hope for its early enactment into law. I take leave to beg that the whole energy and attention of the senate be concentrated upon it till the matter is successfully disposed of. And yet I feel that the request is not needed—that the members of that great house need no urging in this service to the country.

I present to you in addition the urgent necessity that special provision be made also for facilitating the credits needed by the farmers of the country. The pending currency bill does the farmers a great service. It puts them upon an equal footing with other business men and masters of enterprise, as it should, and upon its passage they will find themselves quit of many of the difficulties which now hamper them in the field of credit. The farmers of course ask and should be given no special privilege, such as extending to them the credit of the government itself. What they need and should obtain is legislation which will make their own abundant and substantial credit resources available as a foundation for joint, concerted, local action in their own behalf in getting the capital they must use. It is to this we should now address ourselves.

It has, singularly enough, come to pass that we have allowed the industry of our farms to lag behind the other activities of the country in its development. I need not stop to tell you how fundamental to the life of the nation is the production of its food. Our thoughts may ordinarily be concentrated upon the cities and the hives of industry, upon the cries of the crowded market place and the clangor of the factory, but it is from the quiet interspaces of the open valleys and the free hill-sides that we draw the sources of life and of prosperity, from the farm and the ranch, from the forest and the mine. Without these every street would be silent, every office deserted, every factory fallen into disrepair.

And yet the farmer does not stand upon the same footing with the forester and the miner in the market of credit. He is the servant of the seasons. Nature determines how long he must wait for his crops and will not be hurried in her processes. He may give his note, but the season of its maturity depends upon the season when his crop matures and lies at the gates of the market where his products are sold. And the security he gives is of a character not known in the broker's office or as familiarly as it might be on the counter of the banker.

The agricultural department of the government is seeking to assist as never before to make farming an efficient business, of wide co-operative effort, in quick touch with the markets for foodstuffs. The farmers and the government will henceforth work together as real partners in this field, where we now begin to see our way very clearly and where many intelligent plans are already being put into execution.

The treasury of the United States has by a timely and well considered distribution of its deposits facilitated the moving of the crops in the present season and prevented the scarcity of available funds too often experienced at such times. But we must not allow ourselves to depend upon extraordinary expedients. We must add the means by which the farmer may make his credit constantly and easily available and command when he will the capital by which to support and expand his business. We lag behind many other great countries of the modern world in attempting to do this. Systems of rural credit have been studied and developed on the other side of the water while we left our farmers to shift for themselves in the ordinary money market. You have but to look about you in any rural district to see the result, the handicap and embarrassment which have been put upon those who produce our food.

Conscious of this backwardness and neglect on our part, the congress recently authorized the creation of a special commission to study the various systems of rural credit which have been put into operation in Europe, and this commission is already prepared to report. Its report ought to make it easier for us to determine what methods will be best suited to our own farmers. I hope and believe that the committees of the senate and house will address themselves to this matter with the most fruitful results, and I believe that the studies and recently formed plans of the department of agriculture may be made to serve them very greatly in their work of framing appropriate and adequate legislation.

URGES CURRENCY REFORM TO BENEFIT THE FARMER.

President Wilson in his message urges the immediate passage of currency legislation. He asserts that business interests of the nation are waiting on the expected law before making large new investments or developing resources. The president also calls attention to conditions as they exist at present, which make it very difficult for the farmer to finance his crop. He urges in his annual message provisions that will safeguard the farmer, help his credit and prevent a repetition of the necessity for the government to deposit large sums of money in the southern and western states so as to aid the producer, as was the case last fall.

It would be indiscreet and presumptuous in any one to dogmatize upon so great and many sided a question, but I feel confident that common counsel will produce the results we must all desire.

UPHOLDS ANTI-TRUST LAW.

Recommends That It Be Supplemented With More Explicit Legislation to Facilitate Its Administration.

Turn from the farm to the world of business which centers in the city and in the factory, and I think that all thoughtful observers will agree that the immediate service we owe the business communities of the country is to prevent private monopoly more effectively than it has yet been prevented. I think it will be easily agreed that we should let the Sherman anti-trust law stand, unaltered, as it is, with its debatable ground about it, but that we should as much as possible reduce the area of that debatable ground by further and more explicit legislation, and should also supplement that great act by legislation which will not only clarify it but also facilitate its administration and make it fairer to all concerned.

No doubt we shall all wish, and the country will expect, this to be the central subject of our deliberations during the present session, but it is a subject so many sided and so deserving of careful and discriminating discussion that I shall take the liberty of addressing you upon it in a special message at a later date than this. It is of capital importance that the business men of this country should be relieved of all uncertainties of law with regard to their enterprises and investments and a clear path indicated which they can travel without anxiety. It is as important that they should be relieved of embarrassment and set free to prosper as that private monopoly should be destroyed. The ways of action should be thrown wide open.

FAVORS DIRECT ELECTIONS.

Would Retain Conventions, Delegates to Be Nominees For Office, Whose Duty It Would Be to Frame Platforms.

I turn to a subject which I hope can be handled promptly and without serious controversy of any kind. I mean the method of selecting nominees for the presidency of the United States. I feel confident that I do not misinterpret the wishes or the expectations of the country when I urge the prompt enactment of legislation which will provide for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of the several parties may choose their nominees for the presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions. I venture the suggestion that this legislation should provide for the retention of party conventions, but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platforms of the parties, and I suggest that these conventions should consist not of delegates chosen for this single purpose, but of the nominees for congress, the nominees for vacant seats in the senate of the United States, the senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees and the candidates for the presidency themselves, in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect.

PHILIPPINE CONTROL.

Must Hold Ultimate Independence in View and Strive to Fit Filipinos For Self Government at Future Date.

These are all matters of vital domestic concern, and besides them, outside the charmed circle of our own national life in which our affections command us, as well as our consciences, there stand out our obligations toward our territories over sea. Here we are trustees. Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines, are ours, indeed, but not ours to do what we please with. Such territories, once regarded as mere possessions, are no longer to be selfishly exploited; they are part of the domain of public conscience and of serviceable and enlightened statesmanship.

We must administer them for the people who live in them and with the same sense of responsibility to them as toward our own people in our domestic affairs. No doubt we shall successfully enough blind Porto Rico and the Hawaiian Islands to ourselves by ties of justice and interest and affection, but the performance of our duty toward the Philippines is a more difficult and debatable matter. We can satisfy the obligations of generous justice toward the people of Porto Rico by giving the ample and familiar rights and privileges accorded our own citizens in our own territories and our obligations toward the people of Hawaii by perfecting the provisions for self government already granted them, but in the Philippines we must go further. We must hold steadily in view their ultimate independence, and we must move toward the time of that independence as steadily as the way can be cleared and the foundations thoughtfully and permanently laid.

Acting under the authority conferred upon the president by congress, I have already accorded the people of the islands a majority in both houses of their legislative body by appointing five instead of four native citizens to the membership of the commission. I believe that in this way we shall make proof of their capacity in counsel and their sense of responsibility in the exercise of political power and that the success of this step will be sure to clear our view for the steps which are to follow.

Step by step we should extend and perfect the system of self government in the islands, making test of them and modifying them as experience discloses their successes and their failures; that we should more and more put under the control of the native citizens of the archipelago the essential instruments of their life, their local instrumentalities of government, their schools, all the common interests of their communities and so by counsel and experience set up a government which all the world will see to be suitable to a people whose affairs are under their own control.

At last, I hope and believe, we are beginning to gain the confidence of the Filipino peoples. By their counsel and experience, rather than by our own, we shall learn how best to serve them and how soon it will be possible and wise to withdraw our supervision. Let us once find the path and set out with firm and confident tread upon it, and we shall not wander from it or linger upon it.

PROBLEM IN ALASKA.

Urges Development by Nation of Natural Resources and Full Territorial Form of Government.

A duty faces us with regard to Alaska which seems to me very pressing and very imperative; perhaps I should say a double duty, for it concerns both the political and the material development of the territory. The people of Alaska should be given the full territorial form of government, and Alaska, as a storehouse, should be unlocked. One key to it is a system of railways. These the government should itself build and administer, and the ports and terminals it should itself control in the interest of all who wish to use them for the service and development of the country and its people.

But the construction of railways is only the first step—is only thrusting in the key to the storehouse and throwing back the lock and opening the door. How the tempting resources of the country are to be exploited is another matter, to which I shall take the liberty of from time to time calling your attention, for it is a policy which must be worked out by well considered stages, not upon theory but upon lines of practical expediency. It is part of our general problem of conservation. We have a freer hand in working out the problem in Alaska than in the states of the Union, and yet the principle and object are the same wherever we touch it. We must use the resources of the country, not lock them up.

There need be no conflict or jealousy as between state and federal authorities, for there can be no essential dif-

PRESIDENT MAKES KNOWN HIS PHILIPPINE POLICY.

President Wilson's policy toward the Philippine Islands is made clear in his message. He urges the development of the Philippines, always keeping in view ultimate independence of the islanders. While he does not believe they are ready for self government today he believes that eventually they will be. He points out improvement that has recently been made by calling attention to the fact that more natives have been appointed on the Philippine commission than was the case previously.

ference of purpose between them. The resources in question must be used, but not destroyed or wasted; used, but not monopolized upon any narrow idea of individual rights as against the abiding interests of communities. That a policy can be worked out by conference and concession which will release these resources and yet not jeopardize or dissipate them I for one have no doubt, and it can be done on lines of regulation which need be no less acceptable to the people and government of the nation at large, whose heritage these resources are. We must bend our counsels to this end. A common purpose ought to make agreement easy.

EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY ACT.

Urges Legislation to Safeguard Workmen Both on Land and Sea—Points Out Needed Economical Reforms.

Three or four matters of special importance and significance I beg that you will permit me to mention in closing.

Our bureau of mines ought to be equipped and empowered to render even more effectual service than it renders now in improving the conditions of mine labor and making the mines more economically productive as well as more safe. This is an all important part of the work of conservation, and the conservation of human life and energy lies even nearer to our interest than the preservation from waste of our material resources.

We owe it in mere justice to the railway employees of the country to provide for them a fair and effective employer's liability act; and a law that we can stand by in this matter will be no less to the advantage of those who administer the railroads of the country than to the advantage of those whom they employ. The experience of a large number of the states abundantly proves this.

We ought to devote ourselves to meeting pressing demands of plain justice like this as earnestly as to the accomplishment of political and economic reforms. Social justice comes first. Law is the machinery for its realization and is vital only as it expresses and embodies it.

An international congress for the discussion of all questions that affect safety at sea is now sitting in London at the suggestion of our own government. So soon as the conclusions of that congress can be learned and considered we ought to address ourselves, among other things, to the prompt alleviation of the very unsafe, unjust and burdensome conditions which now surround the employment of sailors and render it extremely difficult to obtain the services of spirited and competent men such as every ship needs if it is to be safely handled and brought to port.

May I not express the very real pleasure I have experienced in co-operating with this congress and sharing with it the labors of common service to which it has devoted itself so unreservedly during the past seven months of uncomplaining concentration upon the business of legislation? Surely it is a proper and pertinent part of my report on "The State of the Union" to express my admiration for the diligence, the good temper and the full comprehension of public duty which has already been manifested by both the houses, and I hope that it may not be deemed an impertinent intrusion of myself into the picture if I say with how much and how constant satisfaction I have availed myself of the privilege of putting my time and energy at their disposal alike in counsel and in action. WOODROW WILSON.

Oyster Shells as Medicine.

Ground oyster shells were given by the medieval doctors to children suffering from rickets and scrofula. Now it appears that they were right. The shells contain lime, nitrogen, iron, sulphur, manganese, magnesia, flour, bromide, phosphoric acid and iodine, all excellent for feeble children. They say that if growing children were to take powdered oyster shells in their food the teeth would be improved.

Suit Against Butter and Egg Trust To Be Heard at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Chicago club-women, leaders in the crusade against exorbitant egg prices, were jubilant when District Attorney Wilkerson announced that the pending anti-trust suit against the Chicago butter and egg board would go to trial this week before Federal Judge Landis. The government alleges that members of the board arbitrarily fixed quotations on butter and eggs irrespective of the price of these commodities in the open market.

FLEE FROM CHIHUAHUA

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 2.—Reports reached El Paso that Chihuahua city, capital of the state of the same name, has been abandoned by its federal defenders; that part of them have headed for Ojinaga, on the Texas border, northeast of Chihuahua city, and that the others are attempting to retreat south. Pancho Villa, rebel commander in Juarez, declared when told of the report that it was true. He said his men who went south wired it to him. Francisco Escudero, foreign minister in the Carranza provisional cabinet, confirmed it also. The reports say that the evacuation took place Sunday, following the return of the federal defeated by Villa near Juarez last week, and that the citizens have placed Federico Moye, a business man, in temporary charge of the city pending the arrival of the rebel army of investment.

The capture of Juarez by the rebels under Pancho Villa was followed by the looting of many stores and the sale of goods to American dealers. This is confirmed from many sources in El Paso. The loot will total a half million pesos.

Without seeing a single federal, the advance guard of Villa's army reached the station of Carrizal, according to telegraphic advices received by General Villa. Carrizal is 97 miles south of Juarez, on the Mexican Central railway, and is nearly half way to the city of Chihuahua.

The federalists who fled south last week are said to be scattered and demoralized. The 3,500 rebels now at Carrizal will march south to Montezuma, 119 miles from Juarez and await the arrival of Villa, who will take personal command of the operations against the capital.

Francisco Escudero, foreign minister in the provisional cabinet of Carranza, who is now here treating with Villa, sounded a note of warning from the rebels to the United States relative to intervention or mediation.

"The fall of Huerta is inevitable and the only slight hope for him is the United States," said Escudero. "Any arrangement made by the United States with the de facto government will work ruin for Mexico and will not be recognized by the Constitutionalists' party. There is no friction between Carranza and Villa, for Villa is considered the supreme military commander of Chihuahua."

Starvation is supposed to have caused the federalists to quit Chihuahua.

General Villa received a telegram from Carranza at Hermosillo to the effect that the federalists in Culiacan, capital of Sinaloa, had evacuated the town.

SOLICITORS ARE BRANDED A FAKE

Party of Youths Arrested Are Said to Have Worked Scheme Similar to One Worked in This City During the Past Few Days—Gang Is Arrested in Indiana.

Beware of magazine solicitors who work the "vote for me" game. This is the warning issued by cities where the solicitors have been operating. It is claimed the same scheme has been thrust upon local citizens the past few days, and most of them are familiar with the scheme.

The Chillicothe Gazette of Monday has the following to say regarding the youthful solicitors:

"...ere you asked to help a young man to get a college course of scholarship about two weeks ago? If you did and paid 49 cents for subscription to several magazines, in order to promote the young man's welfare, you were stung."

"The band of solicitors are said to be fakers, pure and simple, and moreover they are also said to have left without paying their board bill due at the Haynes hotel."

"The police authorities have been after them and according to a dispatch in the Cincinnati Enquirer from Columbus, Indiana, they have caught them there. The dispatch reads as follows:

"Columbus, Ind., Nov. 27.—William J. Stanley, of Prince Edward Island, Marion Stanley, 20 years old, of Everett, Mass., who says she is Stanley's wife; Samuel L. Walker, of Pittsburg, Pa.; Bernard McGovern, Regina, Sask., Can.; David Katski, Pittsburg, Pa.; Walter F. Albert, Cincinnati, Ohio; Herman Silver, Pittsburg, Pa., and Roy R. Rodkey, Detroit, Mich., magazine solicitors, arrested on a charge that they obtained money under false pretenses, pleaded not guilty in city court here this afternoon."

"All except the girl were sent to jail in default of $100 bond each. The court committed the girl, but later released her on her own recognition. Stanley Rodkey and Katski are also charged with conspiracy to commit a felony to which they pleaded not guilty."

"The defendants were working for a New York company. The affidavits charged that the solicitors used assumed names, gave wrong residences and claimed they were trying to get money with which to take college courses. They were taking yearly subscriptions to magazines, which they carried, for 49 cents."

"The band is said to have done a big business here."

OVER A BILLION

Needed to Run the Government of the United States.

Washington, Dec. 2.—It will cost $1,108,000,000 to run the United States government in 1915, according to departmental estimates submitted to congress by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. Though the government business will be much vaster in 1915, the estimates call for only about $34,000,000 more than was appropriated for 1914. There is an $11,000,000 cut in the pension roll. The total pension estimate is $169,150,000.

Among the public building appropriations recommended by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo are these from Ohio: Alliance, $5,000; Bellaire, $31,000; Cambridge, $32,000; Dayton, $50,000; Newark, $50,000; Piqua, $110,000; Salem, $38,000; Steubenville, $20,000.

River and harbor estimates include:

ANOTHER BUS TO BE ADDED

George W. Baker Announces That Second Motor Bus Will Soon Be Added to Handle Traffic Between Jeffersonville, South Solon, Sedalia, Bookwalter and South Charleston.

"Give us motor bus service," is the cry raised by a large number of farmers in and near Bookwalter and Sedalia, and also along one of the roads leading from Jeffersonville to South Solon.

The farmers have been busy the past few days circulating a petition asking for a motor bus to connect them with the outside world, and promising to improve the route of travel and render all assistance in their power to make the service a success.

And Mr. Baker, of this city, has decided to place another bus in commission by early spring, covering the territory of Jeffersonville, South Solon, Sedalia and Bookwalter, with the territory to South Charleston. Two cars may be added, one a summer car.

The bus between Jeffersonville and South Charleston has proven an even greater success than at first anticipated, according to Mr. Baker, and every one is pleased with the service rendered.

The schedule adopted for the service is as follows: Leaves Jeffersonville 7 a. m., 9:45 a. m., 2 p. m., 5 p. m. and on Saturday nights, 10 p. m., returning at one o'clock Sunday morning.

Saturday night 25 persons left S. Charleston on the last car. A theater party from Jeffersonville will be taken to Springfield one night this week.

Hartman Theater

Attractions for Week of December 8th

"The Doll Girl," one of the season's brightest and best musical comedies, is to be seen at the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Tuesday, and Wednesday, December 9-10, with a Wednesday matinee and will serve to show those two exceedingly clever and popular stars, Richard Carle and Hattie Williams in the best roles which it has been their good fortune to secure in a long time. Surrounding the stars is a company that is immensely strong in its collective cleverness. Prominent among its members are Will West, Charles McNaughton, Robert Evett, Dorothy Webb, and Sheridan Simpson. There is a large chorus and the work has been staged with a lavish disregard of expense. New York applauded the comedy, its graceful tinkling melodies, its praiseworthy humor and its clever aggregation of comedians, singers and dancers for four months and the work easily earned the right to be classed among the few big successes of the season.

On Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Dec. 11-12-13-14, the Hartman Theater, Columbus, offers an attraction that will appeal to everyone. It is a motion picture of the story of East Lynne. There is no book that was more widely read by the older generation of today than this story and to see it portrayed in motion pictures will be a welcome opportunity. The younger people who have not read the story will want to take advantage of the chance to see the story of which they have heard their mothers talk so much. It is said that "East Lynne" has been translated into more languages than any literary product except the Bible which is testimony to the wonderful charm of the story. A splendid company of actors was chosen to produce this film and it is given in such detail as would be impossible in a stage version. Those who have seen it pronounce it the most beautiful, best enacted picture they have ever seen.

Well, what about the minaret gown? If it is not to bring back the bustle, life may be worth living.

SUFFRAGE SPEAKER LIKENS SUFFRAGE TO A RELAY RACE

By Associated Press.

Washington, December 1.—The long struggle for woman suffrage in Illinois was likened here tonight to a relay race. Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Evanston, Ill., at the annual convention of the National Suffrage Association described how the work had been carried forward for 58 years until the recent action of the legislature in voting to place the suffrage amendment to the state constitution before the people had brought the goal in sight. The race, she said, was likely to last three years longer.

"This has been a relay race," said Mrs. McCulloch, "where certain runners pressed forward exhaustively until they struck hands with their fresh youthful successors, who in turn pushed on with ceaseless vigor until they, too, exhausted by the race, sent another fresh runner to spur hotly forward toward the great goal. Not for personal renown did each dauntless soul brave the discouragements of the race but for the sake of all women."

"Through these years smaller, less important goals were reached by these great women and their co-workers—equality in laws relating to marriage and divorce, to descent of real and personal property, to guardianship of children, equal opportunity to enter school and professions, and to hold certain offices. Illinois has probably the best laws concerning women to be found outside of the full suffrage states."

The Illinois women were aided, Mrs. McCulloch said, by groups of men in the Federation of Labor and in the Socialist, Prohibition and Progressive parties. Individual Republicans and Democrats, however, showed their interest through the preferential vote at the Chicago primaries in April, 1912. Although most of those who voted at this time were members of the two older parties, whose state platforms were silent on the subject of suffrage and supposed to be opposed, 71,354 persons voted for woman suffrage, "the largest vote for suffrage that has been cast in any city of the world." This vote the Illinois women knew, presaged future victory.

The speaker told, how of late years they had ceased to depend upon volunteer workers and paid the expenses of women lobbyists.

and catches "sun-tads" and little catfish, but the law might easily apply only to boys and men over a certain age, say 16. By the time a boy is 16 he becomes a full-fledged fisherman, if he is going to fish at all, and has come to the time when he wants bass and not little cats. Thorough fishermen would probably all approve of such a license law and strict regulations.—Chillicothe News.

TEAMSTERS STRIKE TIES UP INDIANAPOLIS

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 2.—Business conditions in this city are in a state of chaos owing to the strike of teamsters and chauffeurs, and though the city is not completely tied up, there is so much present difficulty in making deliveries and the future is so uncertain that practically all hauling has been abandoned.

Attempts to send out wagons from mills, factories and wholesale and retail houses were met by squads of strike sympathizers, who stoned the drivers and drove them from their wagons. If the driver was fortunate enough to reach his destination unmolested he found the union employees at the place of delivery hostile, refusing to let him unload or shutting the door in his face and refusing to assist him. A score of arrests were made.

No coal was delivered anywhere, the dealers refusing to attempt deliveries after several of their drivers had been attacked and injured.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED

By Federal Grand Jury Probing

Alleged Dynamite Plot.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 2.—The federal grand jury which has been investigating dynamiting outrages, and before whom George E. Davis, alias McDonald, was the principal witness, returned true bills in 55 cases, 45 of which are said to be against perpetrators of dynamite outrages. Davis and Harry Jones, the present secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, both of whom are under arrest, are known to be indicted, but none of the other names were given out except those of the men who were tried here and are now either in prison or out on bond, pending the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals.

BOY EARNS $40,000.

His Share of Profits Coming From His Expert Knowledge of Farming.

Joliet, Ill. — Werner Kreimer, nineteen-year-old son of J. F. Kreimer, a farmer of Jackson township, Will county, has bought a 160 acre farm for $40,000, all of which he has realized himself from his share of the profits of his father's farm.

The lad is a student of scientific agriculture and has taken a long course of home study from the University of Illinois. He has applied his knowledge in the management of his father's farm and has increased the earnings of the farm 40 per cent.

The Kreimer farm is said to be the most profitable in Will county as a result of the boy's modern methods.

PEARL FRAUD IN PARIS.

Enameling of Defective Gems Deceives Even Experts.

Paris.—The Paris police are investigating a remarkable pearl affair. An individual, whose name is undivulged, has discovered a means of hiding defects in pearls by a process of enameling. Many pearls prepared for the market have been seized by the police.

One pearl valued at 80,000 francs by an expert is declared to have a real value of only 13,000 francs.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Xenia Superintendent Replies. Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—There is no criticism in the report of State Examiner Bliss on the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' home at Xenia which is not susceptible of easy explanation, according to Superintendent J. P. Elton, who was a state-house visitor. Mr. Elton said that while in the past there may have been carelessness in the management of the institution, he is satisfied that the institution is now being run on lines of economy.

Attempt Made to Blow Up Plant. Gallipolis, O., Dec. 2.—An attempt was made to blow up the Treasure stove works of this city with dynamite and was discovered just in time to save lives of many employees. Six sticks of dynamite were discovered by a molder in a mold which he was about to pour off. A strike for advance in wages occurred seven months ago, since which time non-union men have operated the plant.

Woman Broker Sentenced. Cincinnati, O., Dec. 2.—Mrs. Carlotto Thompson Brown, who was convicted of having embezzled $21,000 from a customer while in the brokerage business with her husband, was sentenced by Judge Wade Cushing to an indeterminate sentence in the state penitentiary. Before passing sentence Judge Cushing overruled a motion for a new trial.

Cripple Fatally Hurt. Kenton, O., Dec. 2.—With his back broken, unconscious and almost drowned, Dode Johnson, 50, of Patterson, north of Kenton, was found lying in the bottom of a creek at the edge of the village. He had fallen, it is thought, from a bridge 20 feet above. Johnson walked with a crutch and probably stumbled while crossing the bridge. He will die.

Alleged White Slave. St. Marys, O., Dec. 2.—Burrell Curtis, father of a large family living in St. Marys, was arrested in Charleston, W. Va., charged with violating the Mann white slave act. He will be brought to Ohio for trial at once. His bond was fixed at $2,000. Miss Alva Botkins, the woman he is charged with taking out of the state, is also from St. Marys.

No Expense Accounts Filed. Bellefontaine, O., Dec. 2.—Clerk of the Election Board F. S. Moots has a list of 160 names of candidates at the last election who failed to file expense accounts. He will forward the names to Attorney General Hogan for a ruling as to whether or not the delinquent candidates are entitled to take office.

License Law Upheld. Toledo, O., Dec. 2.—Test cases of saloonmen refused licenses under the new law were dismissed by the court of appeals here. This is the first ruling by an appellate court on the new statute.

No Police in Daytime. Port Clinton, O., Dec. 2.—Port Clinton is without any day police, which is the result of action taken by the city council in order to reduce the running expenses of the city.

New President of Red Sox. Boston, Dec. 2.—On top of official confirmation that Joseph J. Lannin of New York is to purchase a half interest in the Boston American league baseball club, came the announcement that Mr. Lannin will succeed James R. McAleer as president of the club.

PUT TO SLEEP BY HIGH COURT

State of Indiana Will Not Have a New Constitution.

Washington, Dec. 2.—A new constitution proposed for the state of Indiana by the legislature of that state, and which had been prepared under the direction of Thomas R. Marshall, then governor, now vice president of the United States, was put to sleep permanently when the United States supreme court dismissed a petition filed by attorneys appointed by Governor Marshall for a writ of error to the supreme court of Indiana. The later court had affirmed the judgment of the lower court enjoining the governor and other election officers of that state from submitting the new constitution to the voters for ratification at a general election.

Mrs. Tumulty Operated On. Washington, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Joseph P. Tumulty, wife of the secretary to the president, was operated on for appendicitis here. Her condition was reported as very favorable.

HOUSTON WOULD STOP IT

Indiscriminate Distribution of Seed by Members of Congress.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The free distribution of seeds by the government will be discontinued if congress adopts a recommendation of the secretary of agriculture. Secretary Houston asks $296,000 appropriation for the distribution of seeds, a decrease of $146,000 in the amount made available for the purpose last session. He states that he desires to discontinue the indiscriminate distribution of seed by members of congress and to return to the former practice of distributing where they will do the most good, and at the same time extend experimentation to improve grasses, alfalfa, clover and other forage crops.

DRINK BEER ON SIDEWALK

Four Saloons at Dillonvale Unable to Care For the Crush.

Steubenville, O., Dec. 2.—Four saloons are inadequate to assuage the thirst of Dillonvale, a coal mining town in Jefferson county. Until 10 days ago there were 21 saloons there. Now there are only four. County License Commissioner Joseph Gorman wrote the state board that, though each of the four contained large bars, the crush was so great that many of the drinkers had to take their beer outside and drink it on the sidewalk. Because of the demand, there are numerous applicants for wholesale licenses, and the state board has been asked if it is permissible for a wholesaler to allow a customer a drink as a sample of what he is asked to buy in gallon lots. The state board replied emphatically in the negative.

French Thank Uncle Sam.

Paris, Dec. 2.—The French government sent a cable message to Washington thanking the United States government for the prompt sending of warships to protect French interests in Lower California.
